Why Nizhny Novgorod and Lobachevsky University?

Nizhny Novgorod is situated in the European part of Russia on the confluence of the Volga and Oka rivers, 439 km to the east of Moscow. Due to its location, Nizhny Novgorod may be referred to as one of the most picturesque Russian cities. Founded nearly 800 years ago, Nizhny Novgorod has retained many of its unique historic monuments, masterpieces of architecture and traditional culture.

Established in 1916, Lobachevsky University has a vast experience in teaching various subjects to Russian and foreign students. The classes are conducted by highly qualified tutors with whom you will make the first steps into exploring Russian language and culture, learn about Russian foreign policy or immerse into big data work and developing mobile applications.

Russian Summer

The course is suitable for students who wish to know more about Russia and suggests intensive studying of Russian language in small groups formed according to students' language proficiency. Highly qualified specialists in Philology, Psychology and Culture Studies implement innovative interactive methods of training: games, disputes, developing and discussing topic projects together with their students. Wide cultural program and creative environment will help students increase their knowledge of Russian language and become acquainted with Russian history and culture.

Android Development

Data scientist is an on-fire specialty at the job market all over the world. Big data appears in all areas of our lives where we need information analysis: banking, retail, telecoms, production, health service, state administration. The list goes on. The program includes 36 academic hours per week with lectures on basics of data mining, data systems deployment, Hadoop ecosystem, Apache Spark, Dev-Ops Technologies, Scala, Russian language and others. Cultural part includes visits to the most interesting museums and places of our city, language clubs, workshops, etc.

International Relations

Lecturers of the prestigious Institute of International Relations and World History of Lobachevsky University deliver the course on various subjects: «Russia and Modern International Politics», «International Relations», «Modern Diplomacy» and others. The practices of implementation of Russia's foreign policy tools are supposed to be discussed during the presentation of topic-based projects, discussions, and round-table conferences with public figures as participants. Wide cultural program and creative environment will help students increase their knowledge of Russian and become acquainted with Russian history and culture. The course is designed for candidates with current B2 level of English language.
